SNOW IS HERE

As of Wednesday February 28th the area snowmobile trails have about a 10" base with 17-22" of snow. Both the DNR and the Voyageur Snowmobile Club report that they are grooming trails and in the next day or so trails will be in very good condition. Make your customers aware that we have another 20" of snow coming and that may make grooming and riding a challenge. No report on local ski trails as of yet.
